PRICE IMPROVEMENT

Discover your next home in this charming four-bedroom, two-and-a-half-bathroom house that perfectly balances comfort and functionality. This well-built property features beautiful wood flooring and lovely wood cabinets that add warmth and character to the living spaces. The neutral color palette creates a welcoming atmosphere that allows your personal style to shine through.

The standout feature is the delightful sunroom, where morning coffee tastes better and evening relaxation comes naturally. This bright space seamlessly connects indoor comfort with outdoor views, making it perfect for year-round enjoyment. Speaking of outdoor living, the private backyard offers plenty of space for gardening, entertaining, or simply watching the seasons change.

The finished basement offers additional living space that can be tailored to your needs, whether you envision a home office, recreation room, or workout area. A spacious two-car garage with an extra attic space for even more storage.

HVAC was replaced two years ago, and a new water heater was installed in 2021. The beautiful architectural roof is just ten years old.

This home combines the peace of suburban living with convenient access to essential amenities. The combination of indoor comfort features, outdoor space, and practical elements like the basement and parking make this property ideal for those seeking both relaxation and functionality in their daily lives.
